Submit your nomination now for the 2010 Champions of the Earth Award!

Only three weeks remain in the search to find individuals and organizations who are distinguished and committed to making a real difference in protecting our planet.

The UNEP Champions of the Earth Award honors those who, through their visionary thinking, unwavering dedication and committed action, promote the sustainable use of the planet's resources towards global green growth.

UNEP will select a laureate for each of the following categories: Policy Leadership, Science & Innovation, Entrepreneurial Vision, and Inspiration & Action.

Each laureate will receive a $40,000 prize and a specially designed trophy at an Award Ceremony and Gala Dinner to be held on 22 April, 2010 in Seoul, Republic of Korea.

Nominations will be accepted until 31 October. For more information, please visit www.unep.org/champions or e-mail Lucita Jasmin.
